

HBCU/MSIs

NEUTRALITY VS. MORALITY

In the current political climate, many HBCUs/MSIs are trying to find a safe, neutral position. As institutions founded to uplift marginalized communities, HBCUs have historically been the moral standard bearers in troubled times like today's. However, we need moral paths that are strategic and powerful, not reckless. Join us to learn how HBCUs/MSIs can take on the challenges to our democracy without unnecessary risk. This session will be of particular interest to Human Resources and freshmen orientation leaders.
